Annie Black for Nevada Assembly District 19
575 Los Altos Circle | Mesquite, NV 89027

Finally, a Conservative Representative You Can Actually Find...and TRUST!

Dear Assembly District 19 Republican,

In the last AnnieGram I laid out "Black's Blueprint" - seven steps the Legislature should take to help Nevadans rebuild their lives and businesses after the #SisolakShutdown.

If you missed it, you can still download a copy by going to the "Blog" page of my website at www.ElectAnnieBlack.com.

But there are still a lot of issues the Legislature needs to deal with aside from those related to COVID-19.

So I thought, in these final days before the election, I'd share some "Where I Stand" positions on a number of them...

- I support requiring a valid, photo ID before casting a ballot
- I oppose changing our elections to "all-mail" balloting
- I support a prohibition on government employees serving in the Legislature
- I support requiring at least two government regulations be repealed for every new one adopted
- I support authorizing citizens with concealed-carry permits to carry their weapons on school grounds

- I support reauthorizing and fully funding Education Savings Accounts (ESA's) and Opportunity Scholarships
- I support "merit pay" for exceptional teachers while making it easier to fire incompetent ones
- I support banning "sanctuary cities" statewide
- I support allowing you to buy less-expensive health insurance policies across state lines
- I oppose the creation of a "mileage tax" on your car
- I support closing the "tax restraint" loophole by requiring a 2/3 super-majority vote of the people for any tax hikes the Legislature puts on the ballot
- I oppose charging sales tax for your Internet purchases from out-of-state companies
- I support creating a permanent "ANTI-Appropriations Committee" in the Legislature focused exclusively on cutting spending
- I support requiring that Nevada's checkbook be posted online so you can quickly and easily see exactly what your tax dollars are being spent on, to whom and by how much
- I support giving the governor the same line-item veto authority that 44 other state governors already have
- I oppose government mandates on private businesses, including wage and benefit mandates
- I support a requirement that all bills be posted online for at least 72 hours before being voted on, without amendment
- I support a requirement that all campaign donations of $500 or more be reported online within 72 hours of receipt

Let me wrap up this last AnnieGram before Election Day with...

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

Elections are about choices.

Over the past few weeks, I've tried to demonstrate the vast differences between me and our incumbent assemblyman - who's harder to find than Waldo (except during election season).

I haven't attacked him personally.

But I have criticized his positions on issues, many of his votes (such as voting for 26 out of 32 tax hikes and tax-funding for Planned Parenthood), and his failure to aggressively fight against the #SisolakShutdown and all-mail elections.

That's fair game. As is this question...

Where Does Chris Edwards Live?

There's serious doubt as to whether Assemblyman Edwards even lives in District 19 any longer (if he ever really did).

The only address he lists on his website is a P.O. box. Good luck finding him there.

And the address in Henderson where he **claims** he lives on his Campaign Finance Report is occupied by a married couple who, conveniently, are also major donors to his campaign.

Seems fishy.

And when a voter stopped by the house a couple weeks ago and asked for Assemblyman Edwards, the voter told me the man who answered the door got defensive, demanded to know why he was asking for Chris, refused to say if Chris lived there, told the voter to call Chris...and slammed the door shut.

Even fishier.

No wonder I call him "The Invisible Man."

If anyone knows where Chris really lives, give me a call.

Where Does Chris Edwards Stand?

I've laid out a detailed post-COVID plan for rebuilding Nevada, as well as my position on many other issues.

That includes putting budget cuts on the table for any government department, program, service or employee that isn't designated as "critical."

Don't let anyone fool you into thinking cutting the budget means laying off police officers, firefighters, prison guards, judges or classroom teachers.

That's just a scare tactic and 100% dishonest.

On the other hand, at the time this AnnieGram went to print, Chris has yet to offer ANY PLAN - other than some worn-out political mush.

In fact, he doesn't even have an "Issues" page on his campaign website. Instead he has an insultingly short 89-word "About" statement on his home page.

89 WORDS!

That's just nine words more than my son's old "Run Spot Run" book.

You'd think your elected representative would share a lot more information with you about what he's done, where he stands and what he plans to do, wouldn't you?

Chris' website (again, at the time this AnnieGram went to print) also has no "Contact" page. Nor does he offer to send you an e-newsletter keeping you informed on what he's up to.

In addition, Chris hasn't posted anything on the Facebook page linked to his website since May 9, 2016 - over FOUR YEARS AGO!

And that was simply to link to a news story about how he falsely accused his fellow conservative colleagues of "extortion."

Think that's bad?

The Twitter account he links to from his campaign website hasn't posted anything new since November 2014 - almost SIX YEARS ago!

Again, the only time you hear from Assemblyman Chris Edwards is election time.

Say One Thing, Do Another

Chris is a textbook example of a politician who tells you one thing when campaigning for your vote - and then does the exact opposite once he gets to Carson City. Here's just one example...

Thanks to the "Wayback Machine," we were able to pull up his old campaign website from when he first ran for the Assembly in 2014. On it he promised to "keep the state budget on track with population growth."

But in Carson City for his three legislative sessions, Chris has voted for three billion-dollar budget increases that are FAR above the rate of population growth!

Say one thing, do another. And get this...

Included in last year's budget was the creation of Gov. Sisolak's new "Office for New Americans" - which provides taxpayer-funded services for illegal immigrants.

Chris voted for that!

Assemblyman Edwards is no fiscal conservative. He's a big-government Republican. Period.

The Far-Left's Favorite "Republican"

In a recent mailer, Chris called me "Fake News Annie." How cute.

But everything I've written to you about his record has been backed up and documented. It's not "fake news." It's an "inconvenient truth" if you're Chris Edwards.

And here's another...

While Chris continues trying to pass himself off as a conservative, guess who the Las Vegas Sun - the most liberal newspaper in the state - endorsed for Assembly District 19?

Yep. Chris Edwards. The ONLY "Republican" to land the paper's seal of approval. 'Nuff said.

If you want to continue to be represented in Carson City by a tax-hiking, big-government, go-along-to-get-along, squishy Republican - vote for the Las Vegas Sun's candidate.

But if you'd like to upgrade to a conservative Republican who signed the Taxpayer Protection Pledge and isn't afraid to fight for you, I ask for your vote.

Conservatively yours,

Annie Black
